EXPLORE Act One-Year Anniversary Webinar

12:00 PM - 01:00 PM EST

The Outdoor Recreation Roundtable invites you to a one-year anniversary webinar marking the enactment of the EXPLORE Act. This virtual event will bring together federal agency leaders, policymakers, and the outdoor recreation industry to review first-year progress, highlight successes and challenges, and identify priorities to ensure the law fulfills its promise of expanding outdoor access for all Americans.

January 30, 2026

The Secrets of High-Impact Outdoor Orientation Programs (OOPs) from The Outdoor Orientation Symposium

01:00 PM - 03:00 PM EST

A Special Symposium Hosted by the Association for Experiential Education (AEE)

How do the most successful outdoor orientation programs foster a deep sense of belonging? What are they doing to build unparalleled trust in student leaders? Join us on January 30 for an exclusive, two-hour online symposium dedicated to dissecting the "why" behind this year's top-performing programs.

Hosted by Dr. Brent J. Bell from the University of New Hampshire, this workshop will invite presenters to go beyond the data. We have invited the schools that scored highest in the Outdoor Orientation Benchmarking Survey (OOPS) to share their specific strategies, philosophies, and "secret sauce" for success.

What You'll Gain:

The 2025 Data Reveal: Be among the first to see the comprehensive results of this year's benchmarking survey.

The "Belonging" Blueprint: Hear from the school with the highest rates of student belonging.

The Trust Factor: Learn how the top-rated programs build high levels of trust in both leaders and peer groups.

Lasting Impact: Discover the methods used by the school with the highest rates of post-trip growth.

Updates of the OOP Census: Updates on the current state of the "outdoor orientation neighborhood" including the number of programs and trends.

Justice Outside: Learning Lab Peer Cohorts

Your equity journey can be a solitary one with a path that's not always clear. At Justice Outside we can connect you with others on the same path and help you go further together with our Learning Lab Peer Cohorts offered quarterly throughout the year.

Learning Lab Peer Cohorts are immersive, practice-based gatherings where outdoor and environmental leaders come together to build skills, exchange knowledge, and practice equity-centered approaches in real time. Such community driven exchanges of ideas and collaborative problem solving are key to the grassroots nature of our goals of environmental justice and a cornerstone of Justice Outside's Power-Building initiatives.

If you are a program manager, director, or experienced professional in the justice sectors looking to move beyond conversation into real-time practice our labs are excellent opportunities to enhance your journey. These are not lectures, they are peer driven conversations that help participants strengthen connections to one another and between organizations to help further the advancement of equity in the outdoors.

Whether you're taking the next steps on your equity journey or deepening long-term commitments to inclusion in outdoor spaces, our Learning Labs are here to meet you where you are and guide you further on your journey. Register today!
